- (vi) At Board meetings, each Director is entitled to one vote and questions are decided by a majority of votes of the Directors present. In the event of an equality of votes, the Chair will not have a casting or deciding vote. The Board may also act by resolution in writing signed by all Directors.
- (vii) The Board may invite such officers and employees of the Company and such other advisors as it may see fit from time to time to attend meetings of the Board and participate in the discussion and consideration of any matter, and may exclude from all or any portion of its meetings any person it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities.

In-Camera Meetings

- (i) The Non-Executive Directors will meet after each regularly scheduled meeting of the Board, or when it is deemed necessary by the Chair of the Board, without any member of the Company's management present for the purposes of evaluating the Company's senior management and discussing such other matters as may be appropriate.
- (ii) If any Non-Executive Directors are not Independent Directors, the Independent Directors will also meet after each regularly scheduled meeting of the Board, or when it is deemed necessary by the Lead Independent Director, without any non-Independent Directors or any member of the Company's management present for the purposes of discussing such matters as may be appropriate.
- (iii) The Non-Executive Directors and Independent Directors, as applicable, may appoint a member to act as Secretary of the 'in-camera' meetings.
- (iv) Any minutes generated from the meetings of the Non-Executive Directors will be maintained by the Chair. If any Non-Executive Directors are not Independent Directors, any minutes generated from the meetings of the Independent Directors will be maintained by the Lead Independent Director.
- (v) Any business items arising from the meetings will be brought to the attention of the Corporate Secretary and be added to the agenda of the next regularly scheduled Board meeting.

III. Expectations of a Director

- (i) Commitment and Attendance. All Directors are expected to maintain a high attendance record at meetings of the Board (including in-camera meetings) and meetings of the Committees of which they are members. Directors are expected to participate on Committees of the Board and become familiar with the terms of reference for each Committee on which they serve.
- (ii) Preparation for Meetings. All Directors are expected to prepare in advance of meetings of the Board and its Committees and be willing to fully and frankly participate in the deliberations of the Board and its Committees with the intent to make informed decisions. Directors are expected to review the agenda and related materials circulated in advance of the meeting and are encouraged to contact the Chair, the CEO or any other appropriate person, including the Lead Independent Director (if appointed) to discuss agenda items prior to the meetings.
- (iii) Knowledge of Operations. All Directors are expected to be knowledgeable about the Company's operations, activities and industry and to gain and maintain a reasonable understanding of the current regulatory, legislative, business, social and political environments within which the Company operates.
- (iv) Other Directorships and Significant Activities. Each Director should, when considering membership on another board or committee, make every effort to ensure that such membership will not impair the Director's time and availability for his or her commitment to the Company and such service on other boards should be in accordance with the limits set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines. No Director should serve on a board of a competitor of the Company or of a regulatory body with oversight of the Company. Directors will advise the Chair of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee (and the Chair of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will in turn advise the Chair and the Lead Independent Director (if appointed)) prior to accepting any membership on any boards of directors. All Directors should disclose any conflict of interest on any issue to the Chair and the Lead Independent Director (if appointed) or the Chair of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee as soon as it arises. Directors must refrain from voting on any issue when a conflict of interest exists.
- (v) Contact with Management and Employees. Directors should become familiar with senior management and their roles. Directors should be available to management and the Board as a resource and use their abilities, knowledge and experience for the benefit of the Company.
- (vi) Speaking on Behalf of the Company. Directors are required to adhere to the Company's Disclosure Policy if they are asked to speak on behalf of the Company.
- (vii) Confidentiality. The proceedings and deliberations of the Board and its Committees are confidential. Each Director shall maintain the confidentiality of the information received in connection with his or her service as a Director, except as may be required by law or as may be expressly authorized, from time to time, by the Board.

- (viii) Fiduciary Duty. Each individual Director shall act with prudence, honesty and integrity in fulfilling his or her prime responsibility to the Company, and with due regard to the interests of its shareholders and other stakeholders.
- (ix) Compliance with Code, Policies. Directors are expected to comply with the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and all other corporate policies which apply to them.
- (x) General. Directors are expected to perform such other duties as may be assigned to a Director by the Board from time to time or as may be required by applicable regulatory authorities or legislation.

IV. Outside Advisors

The Board or the Non-Executive Directors, with approval of the Chair, may, at the expense of the Company, engage such outside advisors as may be reasonable or desirable to the Board or the Non-Executive Directors in the performance of Directors' duties.

If any Non-Executive Directors are not Independent Directors, the Non-Executive Directors, with approval of the Lead Independent Director, may, at the expense of the Company, engage such outside advisors as may be reasonable or desirable to the Independent Directors in the performance of Directors' duties.

V. Limitation on the Board's Duties

Notwithstanding the foregoing and subject to applicable law, nothing contained in these Terms of Reference is intended to require the Board to ensure the Company's compliance with Applicable Laws.

The Board shall discharge its responsibilities and shall assess the information provided by the Company's management and any external advisors, including the external auditor, in accordance with its business judgment. Directors are entitled to rely, absent knowledge to the contrary, on the integrity of the persons from whom they receive information and the accuracy and completeness of the information provided.

Nothing in these Terms of Reference is intended or may be construed as imposing on any member of the Board a standard of care or diligence that is in any way more onerous or extensive than the standard to which directors of a corporation are subject to under applicable law. These Terms of Reference are not intended to change or interpret the constating documents of the Company or any federal, provincial, state or exchange law, regulation or rule to which the Company is subject, and these Terms of Reference should be interpreted in a manner consistent with all such applicable laws, regulations and rules. The Board may, from time to time, permit departures from the terms hereof, either prospectively or retrospectively, and no provision contained herein is intended to give rise to civil liability of the Company or a Committee to any of the Company's shareholders, competitors, employees or other persons, or to any other liability whatsoever.

VI. Approval

Approved by the Board: July 30, 2026 .
